WE, THE STAFF OF 1962, PROUDLY DEDICATE OUR
"DEN" TO MISS MARY ETHEL
WILLIAMS, FOR WHOM WE HOLD SUCH HIGH REGARD,
BOTH AS A TEACHER AND A FRIEND.

A SHOW
OF APPRECIATION GOES TO
MISS MARY ETHEL WILLIAMS

After 14 years of service to Daingerfield High, Miss Williams points a rebuking finger as sternly as ever.

Miss Williams sits calmly through the assembly program unaware of the coming announcement of the Den dedication.

All-State Band member, John Hasty, receives the Band Award from Mr. McDonald.

GRADUATION DAY

Graduation . . . cherished dreams and fulfilled hopes are completed by this ceremony. The seniors have practiced many long hours on sitting, standing, and walking. They have learned to have perfect control of their outward appearance. But for their emotions at this moment no one has prepared them. No one has told them that in this final hour they must leave behind them high school cares and bring to a close every precious, happy, fun-filled hour. No one has told them that they must struggle to control their feelings, thoughts, and memories. That they must force back tears while singing the "Alma Mater" for the last time with their classmates. The diplomas for which they have worked for twelve years are now theirs. They are no longer a firm, united class, but separate, alone individuals.

Johnny Bryan delivers the valedictory address which marked the end of four years of high school training with an average of 95.025.

Seniors are saddened at the close of Commencement exercises as they sing the Alma Mater.

GRADUATES PONDER FUTURE

and Vernon Davis await their big moment.

As the graduating seniors march from the auditorium they close a door, the door of adolescence, and open the door of maturity.

During a close game cheerleaders and pep club members prove their true Tiger spirit.

TIGERITIS SWEEPS THRU

Cheerleaders, Glynda Richardson, Pat Merritt, Roxie Thomas, Jean Clark, and Nancy Tucker, in a mock coronation dub Steve Cook, David Hall, and Ed Wright "Mr. Homecoming."

Mr. Patton, a favorite of the students, points way to victory.

Leading the team on the field, quarterback, Steve Cook, breaks through the Tiger hoop.

DAINGERFIELD HIGH

Long a tradition at Daingerfield High, the flaming bonfire attracts students who gather to cheer and sing.

In keeping with their project for boosting Americanism, Student Council members, Anita Vinson, Ann Connor, Sue Long, Ronny Wallace, and Glynda Richardson, ride in the Christmas float.

1961 FOOTBALL

This year saw Daingerfield post a 3-6-1 record. While this in itself is not impressive, there were many bright spots in this year's gridiron action. Several times the Tigers defied the sports writers to stun favored opponents.

Especially promising was the talent displayed by underclassmen, talent that should give Tiger fans many an exciting game in the years to come.

DAINGERFIELD—WINNSBORO

Daingerfield's traditional district opener with Winnsboro ended as a 27-16 victory for the Red Raiders. The Tigers' first score resulted from a 77 yard kickoff return by David Hall. Capitalizing on a fourth period Red Raider fumble, Daingerfield's second TD came when Pat Pollan captured a pass in the end zone. The conversion points were added by Wayne Richardson.

DAINGERFIELD—PITTSBURG

The Tigers' second district meet was won by the visitors from Pittsburg. Daingerfield was unable to get its defense going in the first half and the Pirates gained a deciding lead which was increased to 48-20 by the end of the game. Pat Pollan, Wayne Richardson and Mike Walker scored the Tigers' points on runs of 23, 44, and 16 yards.

Allen Blair makes another first down as teammates Ed Wright and David Hall run interference.

DAINGERFIELD—JEFFERSON

District 14-AA's 1961 title winner, the Jefferson Bulldogs, gave Daingerfield its worst loop jolt of the season. The Bulldogs added five TD's to the scoreboard and penned the Tigers up for four quarters before Daingerfield could tally. Only 38 seconds remained in the game when Ed Wright slanted two yards for six points. David Hall made the PAT.

DAINGERFIELD—LINDEN

Linden-Kildare became Daingerfield's first loop victim. The Daingerfield Tigers scored first; but Linden quickly tallied and took a lead it held until the middle of the last quarter when Steve Cook zig-zagged 22 yards for the winning TD. Wayne Richardson, Steve Cook and David Hall were responsible for the Tigers' points in Daingerfield's 22-15 victory.

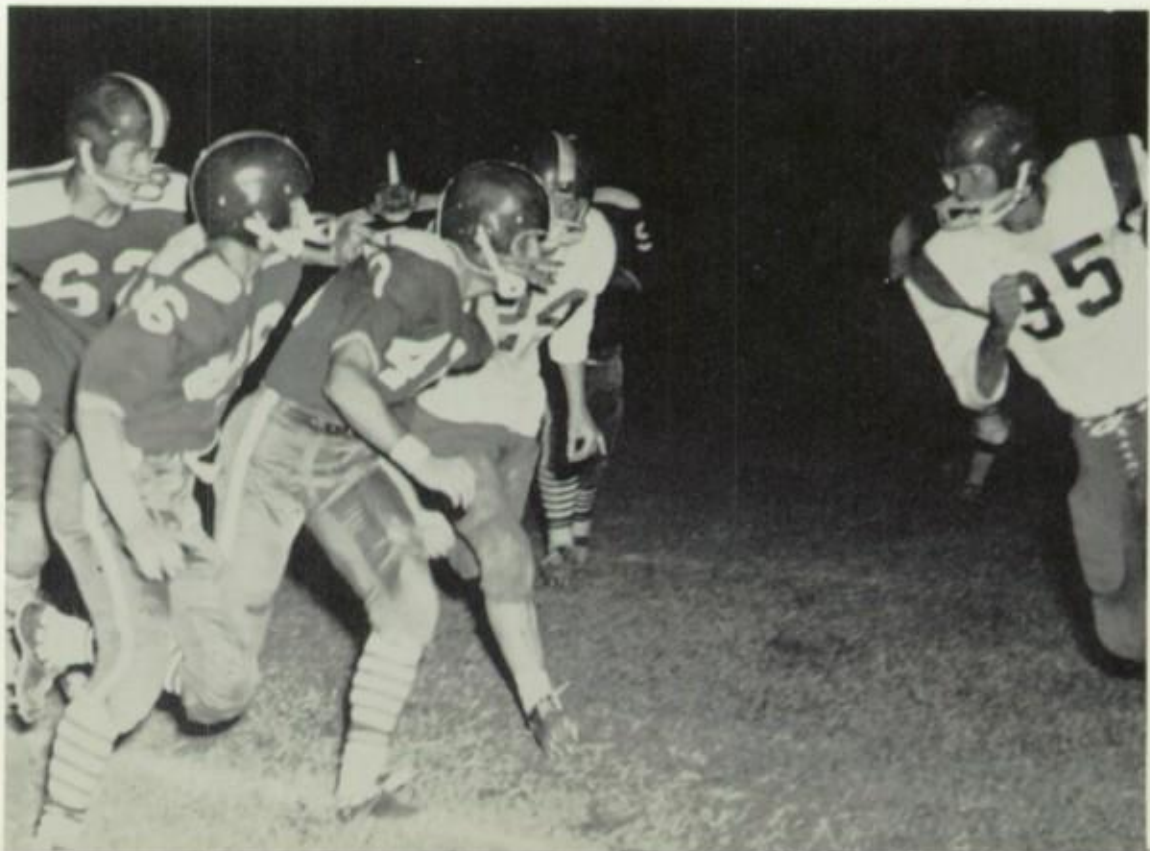

Wayne Richardson picks up yardage against Pittsburg.

DAINGERFIELD—HUGHES SPRINGS

Hughes Springs was Daingerfield's last opponent of the season. The Mustangs and Tigers battled for four exciting quarters in which the most dramatic single play was a seventy-four yard touchdown run by Tiger QB Steve Cook. The outcome of the contest was unsure until the final moments of the game which was won at last by Hughes Springs, 34-22.

David Floyd, David Hall, and Ed Wright stop a Mustang advance.

It must be remembered that no team could score or play without its linemen, who seldom receive their due credit. The Tiger's linemen, of whom Russell Stevens, David Floyd, Wiley Collins, Arley Cook, and Allen Perkins are but few, well deserve commendation.

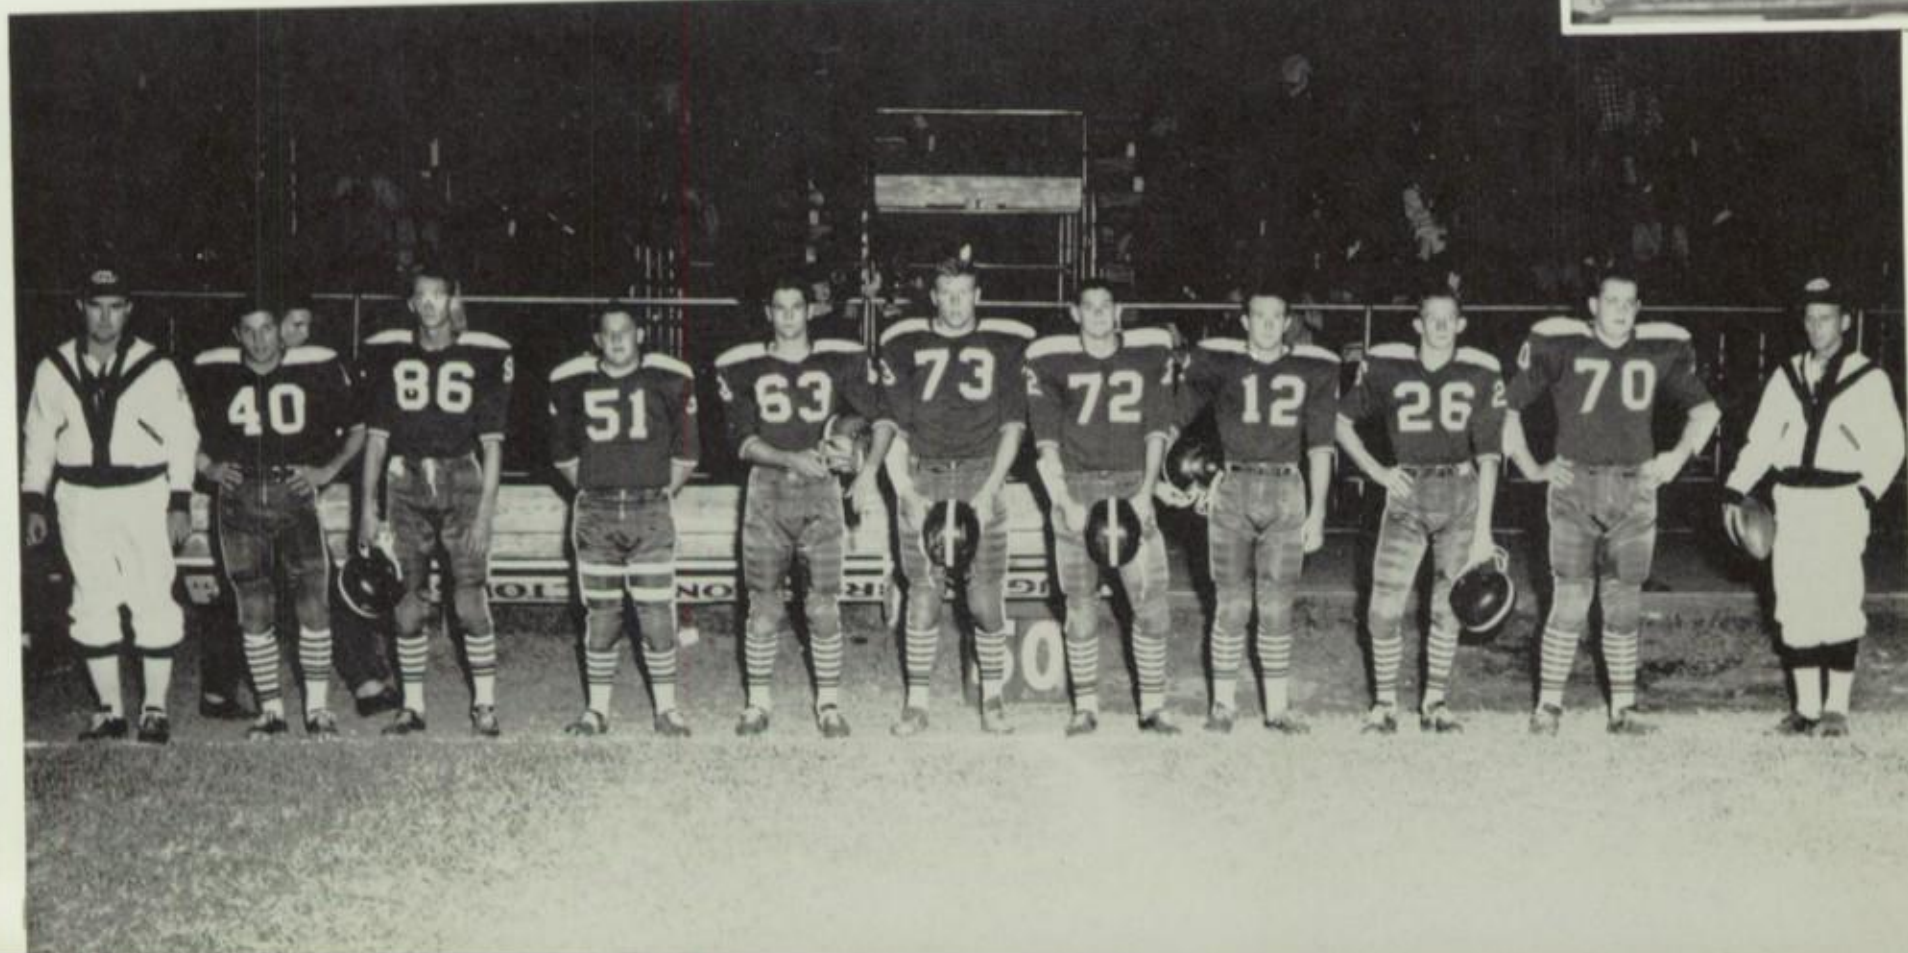

Managers Tony Hall, Ronny Wallace, and Danny McCain worked hard all season to keep the Tigers' equipment in top condition.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

Although Daingerfield's Junior High cage squad failed to place in the district ratings this year, its spirit not once was low. The traditional ideals of sportsmanship and fair-play were continually practiced.

The Cubs turned to track with the same enthusiasm as they exhibited in football and basketball—a fact that produced many an exciting moment for local fans, and promises to do so next year.

HONOR CITIZEN

The DAR CITIZENSHIP AWARD is presented each year by the Daughters of the American Revolution to the most outstanding senior girl citizen.

The 1962 recipient, judged best in leadership, conduct, loyalty, service to the school and community, and scholarship, was ANITA VINSON.

SENIOR CITIZENS

The Student Council members nominate candidates for citizen of the month giving their qualifications including service, leadership, citizenship, and scholarship. The seniors chosen for this honor were Theda Ellison, Ed Wright, Jean Clark, David Hall, John Harper, and Diane Amos.

PEOPLE

MR. J. D. PARRISH
SUPERINTENDENT

The efficiency and leadership needed for managing a progressive school system are to be found in our superintendent, Mr. J. D. Parrish. He is appreciated by the faculty as an able administrator and by the students as a helpful friend.

ADMINISTRATORS RENDER SPECIAL SERVICE

Mr. Jerry Pratt, assistant to the superintendent, is in charge of maintenance, operation, transportation, and census.

Efficiency makes Mrs. Martha Nicholas, secretary to Supt. J. D. Parrish, one of the most important persons in the administration.

Seated around the board table are Dr. Harry O. Philips, G. C. Graves, Joe Pollan, F. E. Arnold, president; Vernon Crossland, Harold Connor, and G. C. Wright.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION PLAN AHEAD

The DHS Board of Education serves well at a job which demands sacrifice of time and the ability and courage to make a decision and stick by it. The members render this civic service unselfishly and receive no salary for their time. Their constant aim is to provide Daingerfield with the finest in education.

MR. J. E. ARNOLD, president of the school board, is manager of General Dynamics—Pomona, Daingerfield Division. He is a former professor of North Dakota State University, Washington University, Tulane and the University of Pittsburgh.

MR. HAROLD CONNOR is Assistant Research Group Engineer of General Dynamics Corp. He attended Kemper Military College and Parks Air College, East St. Louis.

MR. VERNON CROSSLAND, secretary, has served over fifteen years as a member of the school board. He attended Draughon Business College.

MR. G. C. GRAVES is East Texas Sales Representative for Lone Star Steel. He is active in Boy Scout work. He attended Paris Junior College.

DR. HARRY O. PHILIPS, Medical Director of Lone Star Steel, received his B. S. degree from Ottawa University of Ottawa, Kansas, and his M.D. from the University of Kansas.

MR. JOE POLLAN, owner of the Humble Service Station, contributes much of his time to civic service. He has always taken an interest in school affairs. He attended East Texas State College.

MR. G. C. WRIGHT, vice-president of the board, is superintendent of General Services Department, Lone Star Steel. He received his degree in engineering from Texas A&M,

THAT MOULD

Faculty members W. E. Thomas, Harold Lee Parsley, Lewis E. Mayne, and Sam Johnson serve themselves coffee before a faculty meeting.

"Oh, why didn't I study my American Literature lesson today!" This is what Mrs. Guest's students must be thinking as she checks their homework.

Diagramming. Diagramming. Mrs. McMichael stresses this English essential as Mae Connor diagrams.

Ronnie Cowan listens intently as Miss Williams explains the use of adjective and adverbial phrases.

"Shh——" Scott Chapman warns classmates as Mrs. Florence enters her Sophomore English class.

English students practice discipline of the written word

Mr. Parsley directs Jane Connor, Ann Connor, Martha Abbott, and Keith Walker in a one-act comedy.

Mrs. Minter, Junior English instructor, assists Kaye Camp with correct word usage.

Math department stresses college studies

Mrs. Verna Smith helps her students perfect their algebra II by blackboard drill.

"Mathematics teaches you to think." Students in Mr. Johnson's classes know just how true this statement is.

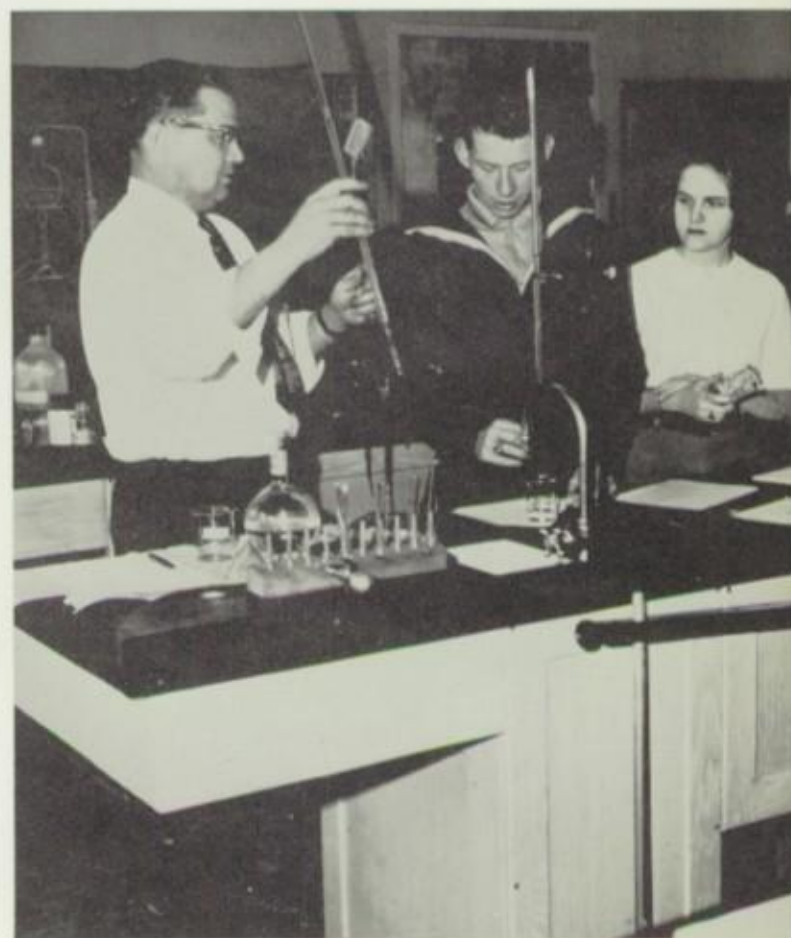

Trigonometry comes to life when Mr. Sam Johnson uses geometric figures as illustrations.

Science-minded individuals learn by experiment

The composition of a chlorine atom is explained by Mr. Patton to his fourth period chemistry class.

Mr. Patton shows Danny Bianco and Jane Connor how to perform a titration analysis of an unknown solution.

What makes you tick? Mr. Curry's biology students learn the answer to this and many more questions concerning themselves.

The first period biology class listens intently as Mr. Curry lectures on the function of leaves.

Furthering the student's knowledge of American history, Mr. Lewis Mayne stresses the relation between geography and history to Verdye Larson and other class members.

Social Sciences teach us our responsibilities and obligations in a democracy

A highlight of Mr. Curtis McDaniel's civics classes is presenting oral reports pertaining to the news of the day. Connie Ryder reports to the class on world affairs.

Mr. Bill Lane stresses the importance to his students to learn not only the history of the world, but also the geography.

Miss Bettye Goodson, student teacher, traces her tour to the Orient for Mrs. Virginia McLain and Glynda Richardson. Glynda is a District II FHA Officer.

Students receive vocational training in home economics and agriculture classes

With the guidance of Mrs. Louise Coker, Jimmy Lee George, Marie Webster, Brenda Cox, and Peggy Mosier examine woolen cloth under a microscope.

Mrs. McLain presents Anita Vinson with the "Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow" Award.

Mr. W. E. Thomas points out the stages of tree growth to agriculture students.

"Safety first" is the motto of Mr. Richard Woods as he instructs Cheryl Philips, Karen Miller, Pauline Brown, and Jeanie Nix in proper driving.

I've enjoyed having you in my typing I class this year. Vonita Cecil

Mr. W. E. McReynolds, certified public accountant, lectures to Mrs. Vonita Cecil's bookkeeping class on opportunities in the public accountant field.

Vocational Education assures students economic security

Jane Connor and Theda Ellison, Regional Interscholastic League contestants, spend hours in practice sessions. Jane qualified to enter the state contest.

Mr. Bobby Bardwell demonstrates various points on desk construction.

Mrs. Alice Hogg, Choral Director, directs choral class during class period.

The Choral club presents the Christmas program for the student body during assembly.

Band and Choral add musical touch to DHS

Mr. Blanton McDonald, Band director, works with the clarinet section of the band.

The concert band rehearses during class period.

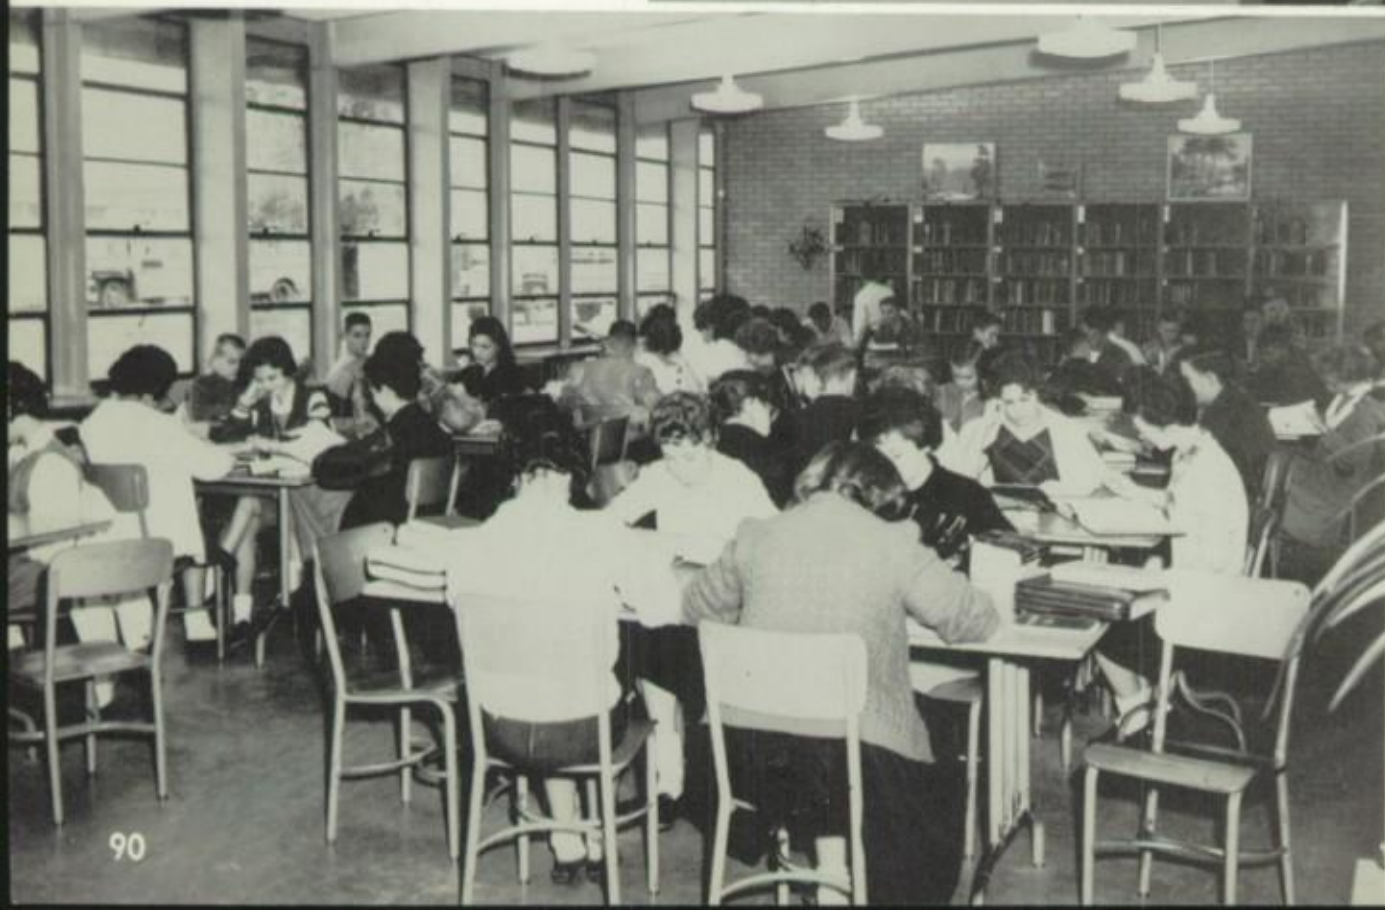

P.E. for better coordination

Physical education classes help us gain well-balanced physical development. Exercises give us better balance.

Books for richer lives

Mrs. Irene Parker, librarian, keeps the DHS Library stocked with the latest publications and honored classics.

*I am one of my best customers
